

Adobe ColdFusion 9: Introduction

Overview: Students will learn how to build and deploy dynamic web applications using ColdFusion. This course is those trained or experienced in HTML and tasked with creating dynamic web pages for their organization.

Prerequisites: Web Design with XHTML, HTML, and CSS

Course Length: 1 Day, 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Lesson 1: Adding Dynamic Elements to a Page

- Introduction to ColdFusion
- Work with ColdFusion Builder
- Build Pages with ColdFusion Builder
- Add a Dynamic Text Display
- Work with Images
- Create a Dynamic Banner

Lesson 2: Building Dynamic Site Navigation

- Pass Data to Another Web Page Through a Link
- Create the Default Page
- : Retrieve Information Passed to a Web Page Through a Link

Lesson 3: Building Forms

- Create a ColdFusion Form
- Add Client Side Validation to a Form
- Create a ColdFusion Page to Collect Results
- Create a Form That Processes Itself
- Enhance a ColdFusion Form Using Flash Elements

Lesson 4: Presenting Data in Different Formats

- Create Slide Presentations
- Read Data from an Excel Spreadsheet
- Generate PDF Output

Lesson 5: Enhancing the Functionality of Your Site

- Subscribe to a Web Service
- Add a Custom Tag from Adobe Exchange
- Add Feeds
- Integrating Google Maps
- Embedding Flash Video
- Working with the Progress Bar

Lesson 6: Deploying Your Site

- Test Your Work as a Complete System
- Transfer Files to a Web Server
- Monitor the ColdFusion Server